

Principal's Pen

Kia ora Whānau,

The days are short and it is cold but next Wednesday is the winter solstice which surely means it will all get better from that day onwards!

On Monday you will have received a message via HERO to book school interviews. These are being held on the Monday and Tuesday of the last week of the term. If you haven't yet received this, then log into your HERO app and scroll to the screen below. You can then book interview slots for your children there. Just follow your nose. If you need any help just give us a call.

These interviews are an important part of our communication around student learning. Mid-Year reports will come home on the Friday before these interviews. The interviews are a great time to catch up and discuss the report and your child's progress.

We look forward to seeing you all then.

Ngā mihi nui,
