Term 2 Week 7 2020

Principal's Pen

Dear Parents, Caregivers and Whanau,

I hope you all had the opportunity to get out and enjoy yourself over the long weekend. It was great to see the town buzzing again and the sun shining.

With the lockdown happening, our usual reporting cycles have been interrupted this year. We would normally send home a mid year report in the second last week of this term and then follow it up with parent teacher interviews in the last week.

This term however, we are going to condense this system. In the last week we will have parent teacher interviews. At this interview you will receive a set of written next steps for your child. This interview will also be a good chance for you to share some of what you learnt about your child's learning while they were learning from home.

You will receive more information about these interviews next week.

On another more exciting note, this weekend one of our teachers is getting married! Jess Todd will be marrying her fiance Doug. As a school we wish Jess and Doug all the best on their special day. I know there are some very excited children in Room 10! On Monday it will seem like we have a new teacher starting when Jess comes back as Mrs Thorne!

*Nga mihi nui,
Grant Excell
Principal*
